Athletics Day

Yesterday, I spent a wonderful day outside with the children while they participated in Athletics Day. It was great to see everyone joining in. The Bayswater School values were all on display! There were some real examples of resilience when things did not go as planned and some personal excellence with some magnificent runs jumps and throws.

The senior athletics took place all morning. The results of the various competitions will be used, in conjunction with the teachers' knowledge of how children have performed during athletics lessons all term, to select the team which will represent the school at the Peninsula athletics competition on 30th November.

The junior athletics went off well in the afternoon, despite the weather closing in. We managed to get everything finished before the rumbling thunder approached, the lightning started and the heavens opened! It was a real celebration and a chance for the children to show what they have been learning in athletics during the term. I was lucky enough to be helping with the sprints and it was lovely to see everyone doing their best and enjoying the running.

Many thanks to the staff for all their hard work making the day such a success, especially Amy McDowell-Pakiato for her great organisation. Thanks to all the whānau for coming along to support the children and Shelley Davies and the Parent Group for organising the ice blocks.
