

Newsletter / Kawerongo 11 * 8 August 2023

Each fortnight at our Monday goal setting hui we introduce our tamariki to a new Kiwaha (phrases to drop into conversation). You can have-a-go at home! This fortnight it's:

Kiwaha: kia atawhai kia tau - Be kind, be settled

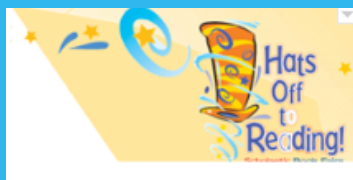

Maths Week / Pāngarau Wiki 2023

Bayswater Whānau Maths Week Challenge

Your child will be participating range of problem solving class activities during the week along with many other children across Aotearoa New Zealand.

On Monday your child will have brought home their Maths Week challenge sheet. You are encouraged to complete one or more of the challenges as a whānau. The work can be brought to school this week or on Monday and will be displayed in the front foyer.

Coming soon:

Bayswater Book Week

Dress ups, shared reading, book fair, author talks, interactive musical story quest show, library crafts, uniquely you hat parade - Look out for further information!

Kia ora Bayswater whānau

There is a lot happening at school this term - lots of fabulous activities that keep our tamariki engaged and actively thinking, creating and learning!

These activities are used as motivation for the teaching and learning of our core curriculum areas of literacy and numeracy, and help establish good relationships between all those involved with the school.

Bayswater's Got Talent

Great fun was had at the Bayswater's Got Talent final! Thank you to our judges Lewis from Devonport Cars - a major sponsor of our Matariki festival, Sophie, a performing arts student from TGS and Bayswater parents Zane and Abby. Thank you to our presenters Malayla and Nathan, backstage crew Harry and Yuna, sound techs Sam and Nate and all our contestants. (More photos can be found on the website.)

Siblings Karlia and Elias sang and played the drums.

Elizabeth danced on skates!

Corina played the piano.

David shared a joke and sang.

Maria shared a dance.

Hazel performed and traditional dance

Metua sang an Elvis song - Return to Sender that earned him the winning place!

Esmeralda, Mia, Ruby and Abigail performed a poi dance.

Sports Results

Netball

26 July

Our Year 5/6 team played Marist Catholic School. The score was 13 - 8 to us. A good game. Player of the day went to Mae for fantastic shooting and stellar defence.

2 August

Our Year 5/6 team played Takapuna School. The score was 14-11 to them. The team played with great effort and attitude, it was such a close game! Everyone played very well despite the sideways rain, wind and biting cold, tough girls! Player of the day was Ruby for all round great play in four different positions.

Funferns 29 July

Bayswater played Devonport and the score was 6 all. Player of the day was Ayva.

Basketball

1 August

The Bayswater Breakers played the Ponsonby Raptors. The score was 8-6 to Ponsonby. Player of the day was Awanui.

Hockey

31 July

Our Year 5/6 team Rakāu played Torbay School. The score was 3-1 to them. The player of the day was Harry. It was a good game tonight with an awesome effort from everyone and incredible defence. Well done team!

7 August

Our Year 5/6 team Rakāu played with Dairy Flat primary school. The score was 0/0. The player of the day was Alex Bowen. It was a good game tonight. Everyone tried so hard and put in great effort. Well done Bayswater Rakau

Congratulations to our students who received a certificate at assembly on Friday 4 August for:

Room 2	Zach	the Bayswater value of Personal Excellence/Kairangatira during our Rocket Challenge. You shared your knowledge and showed great interest in the topic. Miharo!
	Pedro	demonstrating Manawaroa/Resilience. You have joined our class, made new friends and been active in your learning. Tumeke, e hoa!!
Room 3	Esmeralda	the Bayswater value of Kairangatira in writing. You have taken on the challenge of a very important topic for your speech, conducted primary and secondary research for it and have begun to write it with clarity. Ka pai.
	Presley	the Bayswater value of Kairangatira in writing. You have worked independently and fervently to complete your entire first draft of your speech in just a few days. You should be proud of the effort and excellence you have put into this mahi. Tumeke.
Room 4	Karlia	showing Personal Excellence/Kirangatira in writing. You planned and wrote a persuasive paragraph. You used detail and a variety of sentences to help your ideas flow. Miharo!
	Ivory	showing Personal Excellence/Kirangatira in writing. You planned and wrote a persuasive paragraph using emotive vocabulary to convince the audience. Tumeke
Room 7	Rikki	the Bayswater value of Kairangatira Personal Excellence. Your participation and contributions during our Learning Adventures were wonderful. Your valuable suggestions helped to guide our story. Ka rawe".
	Solomon	the Bayswater value of Kairangatira Personal Excellence. Your engagement and participation during our Learning Adventures was wonderful. You sensibly helped guide others to complete their work. Mīharo".
Room 9A	Ayva	the Bayswater value of Personal Excellence - Kairangatira. You have been working hard to listen to the letter sounds and you are beginning to write independently. Karawhiua!
	Caleb	the Bayswater value of Personal Excellence - Kairangatira. You took care in your writing to make sure you included finger spaces. Great learning Caleb!
Room 9B	Macy	demonstrating the Bayswater value of Manawaroa. You have shown determination and resilience when listening to instructions. You take the initiative to ask when you have not heard the person speaking and try again until it is clear. Tino pai Macy!
	Annie	demonstrating the Bayswater value of Manaakitanga. You have been role modelling respect in 9B by practising active listening on the mat. You make sure whoever is talking knows you are listening. You follow instructions and are ready to go to every activity. Mīharo Annie!
