Kia Ora te Whānau!

New Home for Korowai

A huge thank you to Mark Allen for making this magnificent cabinet for our school korowai. The korowai was gifted to us at the end of last year by The Shanahan family. Cara Ferguson was our kapa haka tutor for three years before moving to Ōtotahi Christchurch with her family, former Bayswater School students Ruby and Jasper and partner Palo, who will be fondly remembered as DJ-extraordinaire from many school disco! The korowai was made by current parent Mandy Warman.

Mark has constructed the cabinet from recycled wood. It was a race to get it completed, as he was due to depart for Canada to work on Navy ships for three months.

Thanks to Mark for managing to complete it - it looks fabulous in the newly refurbished corridor of the front block! (In case you are wondering, the korowai is currently away from school, having tabs sewn on so that it hangs correctly in the cabinet).

Mayoral Conservation Awards

Friend of Bayswater school, Graham Pitts, was a finalist in the Individual Award category of the Mayoral Conservation Awards, for his years of local environmental leadership and activism. As Graham was not well enough to attend, he asked that Leo Kohaly and Alice McLuckie go in his place in recognition of their long involvement with the Ngataranga Rat Pack, the local group that conducts pest control and monitoring around our local shores to help and increase our native birds.

They were very impressed with the kai!

Sir Peter Blake Young Leader Award

We were delighted to be visited last week by two representatives of Blake. They came to assembly to award one of our students with a Blake Leadership medal.

Luka is a proud leader - a leader in striving for personal excellence, a leader in strengthening the hauora in others and a leader in demonstrating resilience and respect. Luka embodies how these four Bayswater School values can enhance success and leadership.

Luka takes on any challenge, he looks for solutions and makes things happen. He independently recrafted an assembly script during his duty week, to include te reo maori, which then led to him playing a key role in changing our assembly script permanently by ensuring tikanga was respected and te reo included. He wrote a mihi Whakataui for our Matariki festival and welcomed the crowd in the hall all on his own.

Luka enhances the hauora of those around him as he takes on the role of tuakana but equally empowers others to lead. Luka brings his own mana to kapa haka performances, his passion lifts and inspires the people around him.

Luka's attitude inspires others as his resilience shows through in all he does. He participates in a number of sports, having a go and demonstrating that it's great to have fun and OK not to be the best.

Luka respects the world around him: his place in it, the people and the environment. He is a tuakana who is always willing to support others. He has a kind, caring and nurturing nature towards younger children. He designed and painted our Care for the Drains pictures and guided younger children in the process.

Luka volunteers for everything! He skilfully works within a team and independently - always with integrity and with a smile!

Ko te pae tawhiti, whaia kia tata. Ko te pae tata, whakamaua kia tina
Seek out distant horizons. Cherish those you attain

Luka and his family are pictured with Rex and Jamie from Westpac who presented him with his award.

Congratulations to our students who received a certificate at assembly on Friday for:-

Room 1	Quinn	demonstrating resilience and personal excellence. You strive to overcome challenges and return to learning. Keep at it Quinn!
	Tyson	demonstrating personal excellence and resilience. You are striving to use your manners on the mat - keep it up! We love to see your respectful attitude.
Room 2	Leonor	showing personal excellence in reading as you combine a variety of reading strategies to investigate your mini inquiry. Tu meke!
	Charlie	showing personal excellence in probability. You have used mathematical knowledge to figure out the chance of something happening and supported this with percentages.
Room 3	Leo	showing leadership when working with a group. You are a great role model and help others to stay on task.
	Hunter	always showing the Bayswater value of respect. You actively listen to others speaking and help other children to learn.
Room 4	Charlotte	showing personal excellence in writing. Your mini speech hooks the audience, has personal voice and shows that prior learning about vocabulary, punctuation and sentences has been applied to your writing.
	Isabella	showing personal excellence in writing. Your passion for the subject has been passed on to the audience by sharing your knowledge and feelings, as well as using effective writing skills.
Room 5	Hiria	demonstrating resilience as a writer, asking for support to help you complete a speech you feel proud of - tino pai mahi!
	Samuel	writing a speech that shares your passion for learning with your audience - ka rawe!
Room 6	Ari	being self-aware and finding strategies to show resilience in a range of situations.
	Manukura	the resilience you have shown to persevere and complete your speech writing to a standard of personal excellence.
Room 7	Louie	being respectful and caring during class. You are supporting the hauora of those around you and striving to do your best. Tu meke Louie!
	Mia	your commitment and focus during reading. You are answering questions, reading fluently and retelling stories with expression and passion. Tu meke!
Room 8	Lily	achieving great results in art and writing. You have a positive attitude towards your work and the classroom environment.
	Elias	listening to instructions and settling into classroom learning and activities very well. You have thought about how you interact with others and are a great role model.
Room 9	Ayden	the Bayswater value of Personal Excellence. You have been organised and focused on your learning. Tino pai
	Fletcher	your enthusiasm during our focus on animals. You have shared your knowledge and expertise with the class.
	Corina	the Bayswater value of personal excellence. You have been hearing and writing all of the main sounds in words. Well done!
