Play-Based learning PLG

The week before last, Claire and Sasha hosted a Professional Learning Group meeting for teachers involved in play-based learning. About forty staff from schools across the North Shore attended. They listened to a presentation about the work Claire, Sasha and our team of TAs have been doing and then had a look around our new building. The feedback from colleagues was very positive.

Farewell

One of our students, Justice Lowery, left for Wellington last Thursday. He was farewelled by his peers with a rousing haka on the front courts.
